

ONLINE EVENT

“Migration and Everyday life of (post-) Soviet diaspora nationalities.”

(3-5 February 2022 in Lüneburg, Germany)

Day 1.

14:40-15:00 Opening Ceremony

15:00-16:30 Panel 1: Sources of Local Histories

Daria Svirina (U of Tyumen) “They categorically denied propiska for us because we are Germans”: Internal migration of Soviet Germans after 1955.

David Jishkariani (Ilia State U) Ethnic Deportations from the Georgian SSR of the 1940s and 1950s and their reflection in the KGB and Central Committee Archives of Georgia

Tamta Melashvili (Ilia State U) Oral histories and the transmission of memories of German descendants in Georgia today.

Discussant: Kerstin Bischl (U of Göttingen)

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Keynote Lecture I. Ekaterina Emeliantseva Koller, University of Zurich

18:30 Spatial Chat

Day 2.

12:00-13:30 Panel 2: Mobile Memories: Relations and Negotiations

Lea Feibusch (LMU München) Jewish migration and its impact on Jewish remembrance in Germany.

Oliver Reisner (Ilia State U) Deportation of the Germans from Georgia and its afterlife in memories from a comparative perspective.

Helene Henze (Nordost-Institut) A Russian-German “1968”? The Russian-German Departure Movement in a Transnational Context

Alina Jašina-Schäfer (BKGE) On hard and dignified labour: Female migrants remembering socialist past in present Germany.

Discussant: Darja Klingenberg (Viadrina University)

13:30-14:00 Coffee Break

14:00-15:30 Panel 3: Multiple Identities and Trajectories of Belonging

Nino Aivazishvili-Gehne (U Vienna) “Jewish by Faith, Georgian by Origin”: Multiple Belongings of Migrants from the Former USSR and reconfigurations of community after emigration in Germany.

Cristiana Lucchetti (LMU München) Language attitudes and the construction of group identity amongst post-Soviet immigrants in Israel and Germany. A comparative analysis.

Mariana Irby (U of Pennsylvania) Striving for Futures Past: Citizenship and Belonging among Tajik Migrants in Urban Russia.

Discussant: Concha Maria Höfler (NTU)

15:30-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00-17:30 Keynote Lecture II. Tsypylma Darieva, ZOiS: Homeland pilgrimage. Roots and Routes of Transnational Engagement

17:30 Spatial Chat

Day 3.

10:00-11:30 Panel 4: Migration, Resettlement and Spaces of Remembrance

Daniel Gebel (BKGE) “In Siberia one was freer”: The ambivalence of the Soviet periphery.

Anna Tchintcharauli (Ilia State U) An official and oral history from the Soviet regime until today: how Soviet politics affected the memory of the Caucasus highlanders.

Ulrike Huhn (U of Göttingen) The Leningrad Jewish independent movement of the 1980s and the quest for Jewish heritage in the Ukrainian and Belarusian shtetls.

Discussant: Joachim Tauber (Nordost-Institut)

11:30-12:00 Coffee Break

12:00-13:30 Roundtable “What’s in a word? Possibilities, Boundaries and Un/problematic Translations of Concepts” (Concha Maria Höfler, Hans-Christian Petersen, Darja Klingenberg. Anke Hilbrenner/ Jannis Panagiotidis - Moderation).